Outdoor Survival Skills Camp

What do you do in an emergency?

Where do you go when lost in the wilderness?

How do you really treat a snakebite?

The York County 4-H Outdoor Survival Skills Camp will help you develop the skills needed to survive outdoors in an emergency situation. You will learn what to do if you get lost, how to use a map and compass, how to prepare for the trip, how to perform basic first aid, and how to survive overnight or in cold weather.

For questions or for more information, please call:

Michael McKenna,
Urban 4-H Assistant
(717) 840-7408

Camp is limited to 20 campers

Lunch will be provided; if any food allergies exist, please notify the Camp Director

Camp will be held rain or shine; campers should be prepared for all weather.

Camp will be held at the York County 4-H Center
717 Stoverstown Rd
York, PA 17404
